- Fee reimbursements are sought from candidates who fail to sit an exam or meet the necessary coursework requirements without medical evidence or evidence of other mitigating circumstances.
- Retake fees for first and any subsequent retakes are paid by the candidates. (See also section: Retakes)
- Candidates must pay the fee for an enquiry about a result, should the centre not uphold the enquiry and the candidate insist on pursuing the enquiry. (See also section: Enquiries about results [EARs])

8. The Disability and Equality

The Head of Centre must ensure that the Greek School of Ayia Triada Birmingham meets the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA), extended in 2005, and the Disability Equality Duty (DED) 2010.

- The DDA introduced measures aimed at eliminating the discrimination often faced by disabled people. The main provisions of the Act give protection to disabled people in the areas of employment and education.
- A person has a disability for the purposes of the DDA if s/he has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on her/his ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.
- The Centre will meet the disability provisions under the DDA (or the Equality Act 2010), by ensuring that the exams centre is accessible and improving candidate experience. This is the responsibility of the Head of Centre.

9. Special Educational Needs

Greek Language teachers should advise the Exam Officer of the School at the GCSE YEAR of any pupils who are on a course leading to an examination, and the dates of their examinations, including modular examinations.

It is the responsibility of the Exams Officer to liaise with the Examinations Head of Centre about the arrangements for candidates with Special Educational Needs. The Examinations Officer and the Head of Centre will ensure that all relevant documentation is provided for Access Arrangements for each candidate with special educational needs.

The Greek School of Ayia Triada Centre is responsible for relevant testing and assessment of Access Arrangements that might be applied. The Exams Officer will ensure all requests for Access Arrangements are sent to the appropriate boards and process the replies. The Exams Officer is also responsible for notification of access arrangements in writing to parent(s)/guardian(s) It is the responsibility of the Exams Officer to provide a separate room and invigilator for an individual or small group of candidates that require a reader/scribe.

It is the responsibility of the SENCO to allocate a suitable member of staff to support the candidate e.g. to read/scribe/etc.

Information of any candidates with Access Arrangements e.g. extra time, must be available to the invigilator in the examination room and recorded on the official seating plan

10. Access Arrangements

Making special arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the SENCO and the Examinations Officer. Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENCO.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Examinations Officer.

It is the responsibility of the Greek School of Ayia Triada to provide Word Processors/Laptops for candidates with relevant Access Arrangements. Spell check and internet facility must be disabled in accordance with JCQ Instructions Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the SENCO with the Examinations Officer.

11. Estimated Grades

The Head of Centre is responsible for submitting estimated grades to the awarding body when requested.

12. Contingency Plan

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Head of Centre of Greek School of Ayia Triada and the Management Board. Please see separate Document titled: Contingency Plan

13. Managing Invigilators and Exam Days

Management Invigilators

External invigilators will be used for exam supervision. They will be used for all Examinations. Securing the necessary Disclosure and Barring Service (formerly Criminal Records Bureau-CRB) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the Head Teacher's PA.

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre. Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the Exams Office. Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the centre administration. Exam days The Examinations Officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms. The lead invigilator will start all Examinations in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff, if available, should be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates but must not advise on which questions are to be attempted.

Any staff present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed and what they can do.

In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties, but may not assist with suggestions eg of use of colour, materials or method.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department/faculty 24 hours after the end of the exam session once all candidates have completed.

14. Candidates, Clash Candidates and Special Consideration Candidates

Candidates

The Centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidate's use of mobile phones and other electronic devices apply at all times.

The JCQ's published rules on acceptable behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. The School will send a letter home to any student who is disruptive in external exams or mock exams.

Candidates may leave the exam room for a genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case a member of the exam staff must accompany them at all times.

The Examinations Officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines. The Examinations Officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on the exam day.

Clash candidates

The Examinations Officer and external invigilators will be responsible as necessary for supervising candidates with exam clashes. Overnight supervision as necessary and in accordance with the JCQ rules and regulations Special consideration

Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within 5 days of the exam, for example by providing a letter from the candidate's doctor.

The Examinations Officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

15. Examinations Internal Appeals Procedure

The JCQ requires the centre to publish a separate procedure relating to internal assessment decisions, which is available from the Exams Office.

The main points are:

- appeals will only be entertained if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded
- candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- appeals should be made in writing by end of June to the head of centre (or other nominee) who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements.
- the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the Examinations Officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

16. Results, Enquiries About Results (EARs) and Access to Script (ATS)

Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days in person at the centre / by post to their home addresses (candidates to provide sae).

Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the head of centre. The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the Examinations Officer.

EARs–EXTERNALLY MARKED UNITS

Following the issue of results, candidates may wish to see a copy of their script or ask for their script to be re-marked EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. Candidate consent is required before any EAR request is processed.

When the centre does not uphold an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.

A Priority Script and Priority Re-mark is available for A-level candidates whose place at university may be dependent upon these results. The deadline for these services is 5 working days after the publication of results. Non-priority scripts and re-marks are available for four weeks after the publication of results. Following a re-mark, unit marks and grades may be raised, stay the same or be lowered.

Fees and deadlines will be published for these services and are issued to HODs before results day and available from the exams office following each results day. Not all services are available for all subjects and/or levels (See section 5 : Exam fees)

ATS–ACCESS TO SCRIPTS

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers within the deadlines set by the awarding bodies. Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained, forms available from the exams office.

AS/A2/GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned by the awarding body.

17. Malpractice

'Malpractice' means any act, default or practice which is a breach of the Regulations or which: compromises, attempts to compromise or may compromise the process of assessment, the integrity of any qualification or the validity of a result or certificate; and/or

- damages the authority, reputation or credibility of any awarding body or Centre, any officer, employee or agent of any awarding body or centre.
- A failure by a centre to investigate allegations of suspected malpractice in accordance with the requirements of the Joint Council for Qualifications also constitutes malpractice. The centre will investigate and report to the appropriate awarding body all cases of suspected malpractice in accordance with the Joint Council's policies and procedures.
- Where malpractice is discovered in external examinations, then the appropriate procedure as set out by the awarding body or examining body (Joint Council for Qualification) will be followed by the school.
- Malpractice associated with external examination for the purposes of this policy includes the following:
 - Unlawfully obtaining, selling, using or distributing examination papers prior to exam sessions
 - The use of mobile phones and other electronic devices during exams
 - The passing of information between students during an examination
 - Taking unauthorised material into the examination room

Where malpractice is discovered in coursework, then the appropriate Head of Centre will discuss the matter with the Head of Centre and the Examinations Officer. The action taken will depend on the severity of the malpractice that has taken place.

- In some circumstances, candidates will be required to re-submit the work.
- In some circumstances, the work will be destroyed and not entered for assessment. This will reduce the grade available to the candidate.
- In extreme circumstances, the incident will be reported to the relevant awarding body.

Where malpractice in coursework is discovered by the awarding body, then the awarding body will follow their own malpractice procedures. (Details of these procedures can be found in the JCQ Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments document).

All candidates must be aware that the awarding body has the right to invalidate any qualifications awarded by them to the candidate if malpractice is discovered.

- In addition, awarding bodies will report malpractice to the JCQ who may invalidate all qualifications awarded by all awarding Bodies.
- Candidates must therefore ensure that malpractice does not take place at any stage during the examination and assessment process.
- JCQ Malpractice Document can be found here: (Note that this document is revised every year) <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice/suspected-malpractice-in-examinations-and-assessments>

18. Certificates

Certificates are collected and signed for.

Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so.

The centre retains certificates for 12 months.

Lost Certificates can be requested from the relevant exam boards. A transcript of results can be arranged if requested in writing and there is an admin fee payable for this service.

19. Monitoring and Evaluation

This exam policy will be reviewed every two years. This exam policy will be reviewed by the Head of Centre and the Management Board
